

Moran Statement on the Resignation of University of Kansas Chancellor Robert Hemenway

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman Jerry Moran today released the following statement on the resignation of University of Kansas Chancellor Robert E. Hemenway.

"For the past 13 years, Chancellor Hemenway has been a tremendous leader at KU during very successful years," Moran said. "Chancellor Hemenway's experience and dedication to higher education has kept KU development and recruitment strong. I've appreciated the opportunity to work with him on many issues benefiting the people of our state, including the development of health care research at the KU Medical Center. The Chancellor, and his wife Leah, have become personal friends and I wish them great fulfillment as they begin a new chapter. Chancellor Hemenway's dedication to the students and faculty will be the legacy he will forever hold at KU."

Moran has earned two degrees from the University of Kansas.

###